

“If you can read this, thank a teacher.”

- Anonymous teacher

“We shouldn't teach great books; we should teach a love of reading.”

- B. F. Skinner

“The beautiful thing about learning is that no one can take it away from you.”

- B.B. King

“We read to know we are not alone.”

- C.S. Lewis

“You're the same today as you'll be in five years except for the people you meet and the books you read.”

- Charlie "Tremendous" Jones

“When you sell a man a book you don't sell him just 12 ounces of paper and ink and glue - you sell him a whole new life.”

- Christopher Morley

Number the Stars (Lois Lowry)

Give the name of the main character and tell something about that person.

In your own words, tell about the book.

Things to remember:

- Please bring your booklet filled out on the first day of school
- Don't wait until the last minute to start reading. Rushed work is never excellent! It also takes the joy out of reading.
- Make sure you use neat handwriting.
- Be prepared to share what you have written with the class.
- Visit the library often!
